Dear Mr. Pfeiffer:

This is in response to your request for release of information from the files of the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC) referred from U.S. Army Garrison, White Sands Missile Range, on July 10, 2019.

Please be advised, USACIDC is responsible for the investigation of felony and misdemeanor crimes, which involve a CID reportable offense.

A search of the Army criminal file indexes utilizing the information you provided, revealed no files pertaining to records documenting the number and types of injuries, accidents, medical emergencies, security issues, and arrests or detentions, at Trinity Site, between January 1, 2010 and April 1, 2019. You are advised that records at this center are Criminal Investigative and Military Police Reports and are indexed by personal identifiers such as names, social security numbers, dates and places of birth and other pertinent data to enable the positive identification of individuals.

This can be considered a "no record" response for USACIDC records pursuant to the Privacy Act, Title 5, USC, Section 552a and the Freedom of Information Act, Title 5, USC, Section 552. You have appeal rights concerning this action. Please note that your appeal should address information denied in this response and cannot be used to make a new request for additional or new information.

This no records response can be deemed by you to be a denial under the FOIA by the Initial Denial Authority, the Commanding General, U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC). If you wish to appeal this decision, please do so within ninety (90) days of the date of this letter. Please submit your appeal addressed to this office: Director, U.S. Army Crime Records Center, Attention: CICR-FP, 27130 Telegraph Road, Quantico, VA 22134.

Questions regarding this action should be in writing to this center at the address shown on the letterhead or you can call 1-571-305-4254. Please reference the above control number with your correspondence.

I trust this will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,
